September 04th 2013: New World of Work: From the Cube to the Cloud

In the 1930's work moved from the farm to the factory, and then to the corporation and the cubicle. Today, work has moved again, only this time it's moved from the cube to the cloud. The new world of work is unlike anything we've ever seen. 58% of all work will be contract in the next 5 years, over 1/3 of the global workforce will be virtual in the next 2 years, and workers now compete for projects, and companies compete for talent in a new way. What this means for professionals is that it's never been easier to have a career that is based on meaningful work, but you need the right strategies.
