September 13th 2013: The STARR Principle with guest Tanya Mann Rennick

I have often been asked if there are proven shortcuts to harness success in your business or personal life. My response is that there are processes for success however like planting an acorn the results take time to grow. Tanya Mann Rennick proves things can be done quickly, transforming her life in only 3 years from unknown single mother with an adverse background to establishing London's most stylish business networking club 'The Oyster Club' and speaking at the House of Lords, the European Parliament and visiting 10 Downing Street (the office of the British Prime Minister). During this show

Featured Guest

Tanya Mann Rennick

Tanya Mann Rennick, an entrepreneur and inspirational speaker, has spoken at the House of Lords, the European Parliament, and visited 10 Downing Street. Yet just 3 years ago, Tanya was an unknown single mother of 3, who had achieved none of this. Deserted by her father at birth and believing she was the cause of the marriage breakdown, Tanya became another troublesome kid on the block. As a rebel teen, she messed with drugs and alcohol, and by the age of 21, was under the spell of a violent man, who abandoned her just before she gave birth to their baby. Determined to turn her life around and create success, Tanya founded The Oyster Club in 2010, London's most exciting and stylish business
