November 07th 2013: Investigating Sexual Abuse Claims

A criminal charge of sexual abuse has lifelong consequences. There is no question that there are many documented cases of legitimate sexual misconduct between fathers and their children. But there are also those who make false allegations and it is the job of a good investigator to ferret out the difference. Private Investigator Mark Murnan is an expert in investigating sexual abuse claims and will discuss the step by step process he uses to get the facts and get to the truth.
