Winning Ponies

Thursday at 5 PM Pacific

September 19th 2013: 'Winning Ponies' Presents Writer / Publisher Sue Finley and Editor / Handicapper Tom LaMarra

From an internship in the NYRA press department while a cum laude graduate of New York University with Bachelor's Degrees in French and Journalism, Sue Finley has spent her entire career in horse racing. She spent her childhood commuting to Belmont Park from her home in Weston, Connecticut. While still a senior at NYU she accepted a full-time position at NYRA in her final term. Her career took her from Senior Media Coordinator at NYRA to a researcher for ABC's Wide World of Sports, to Director of Administration and Publicity at one of ABC's properties, the American Championship Racing Series.

Featured Guests

Sue Finley

Sue Finley spent her childhood commuting to Belmont Park from her home in Weston, Connecticut. A cum laude graduate of New York University with Bachelor's Degrees in French and Journalism, she began an internship in the NYRA press department while still a senior at NYU and accepted a full-time position at the track in her final term. She earned a scholarship for NYU's Master's program in French, but the lure of Belmont Park proved to be too great, and she left graduate school after a semester to concentrate on her racing career. She remained at NYRA for eight years, rising to the position of Senior Media Coordinator, and left in 1991 to work as a researcher for ABC's Wide World of Sports. In
