Thursday at 9 AM Pacific
October 03rd 2013: A PI's Haunting Inner Conflicts

Every private investigator is confronted with it sometime in their career. It is the inner conflict, the case that haunts. It lacks reconciliation. The pieces just don't fit; a confession that didn't ring true, a conviction that wasn't quite right, or a clue overlooked on a missing person case. It comes with the territory. Tune in to hear Maryland Private Investigator Lynn Levy discuss this quandary and address her experience with an inner conflict on her own case.
