

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
October 1st 2013: Clinical Trials -- Benefits and Protections

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Karen Arts is the Director of Business Development, High Impact Clinical Trials Program, at the www.oicr.on.ca, Ontario Institute for Cancer Research in Toronto, Canada. Linda Bennett is the Executive Director, Canadian Rheumatology Research Consortium, www.rheumtrials.com/english.htm, Canadian Rheumatology Research Consortium. They talk about their careers, experience with family caregiving and their work as it relates to clinical trials. They discuss the benefits of clinical trials and explain the challenges in delivering the benefits. They describe the processes that protect participants an

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF

GET CODE

Featured Guests

Karen Arts

Karen Arts is the Director of Business Development, High Impact Clinical Trials Program, at the Ontario Institute for Cancer Research in Toronto, Canada

Read more

Linda Bennett

Linda Bennett is the Executive Director, Canadian Rheumatology Research Consortium. She has an undergraduate degree in science from the University of Toronto.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook

Share On Twitter

Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

VOICEAMERICA BLOG