October 01st 2013: Communication, Internships and Mentorships

Ever thought about offering an internship in your business but don't know where to start? Could you use a little help around the office? Do you want to mentor a student and make a lasting impact on a life? This episode of Communication Nation focuses on internships and mentorships. I've brought in Impromptu Guru's intern and marketing assistant, Christina Miller, to share her experience from a student perspective about what makes a good internship experience. We'll also talk about how you can go about working with universities, community colleges, trade schools and other organizations to list
