October 9th 2013: Ghana, Brazil, IPO's in the Gulf and the Washington Factor

Again this week, Gavin consults a global roster of fund managers, analysts and journalists. Thomas Vester from Lloyd George Management in London explains the outlook for frontier markets for the rest of 2013 and whether he expects any impact from the Washington crisis. Paul DeSisto from M&R Capital in New York outlines his outlook, fund and stock picks for Brazil. Baldwin Berges of Silk Invest Funds reports from Ghana on its prospects. Richard Gula of the Argyle Companies checks in from Boston with his analysis of the impact of the shutdown on South American countries. Thomson Reuters financ
