October 24th 2013: Being a Better Worldian By Being Who You Are

To make a difference, be authentic. This week on BetterWorldians Radio we'll focus on how being in touch with yourself is the first step toward doing good in the world. We speak with Sheva Carr, CEO of Fyera! and Director of HeartMath's HeartMastery Program. Carr's unique journey through various trials, successes and experiences illustrate the importance of being true to oneself. Tune in every week to hear new guests share how they are making the world a better place and to learn how you can become a BetterWorldian!

Sheva Carr

Sheva Carr is the architect and Director of HeartMath's HeartMastery Program, the CEO of Fyera! and the founding Executive Director of the Fyera Foundation and Sunflower SunPower Kids. She is a PathwaysToPeace.org Director and Delegate to the United Nations, and featured as a "love luminary" in Marci Schimoff's New York Times bestselling book "Love for No Reason." As a doctor of Oriental Medicine and HeartMath trainer, she has authored several books (most recently "Being the Source of Love"). Through her alliance with CreativityForPeace.com, Sheva helps to bring young Israeli and Palestinian women together in retreat settings, where they have become fast friends and global peace builders.
