October 30th 2013: Russia, Dubai, Nigeria and Colombia

Gavin talks to a global roster of correspondents and contributors. From London, analyst James Beadle outlines what he sees as misperceptions about Russia. From Toronto, financial advisor and demographics researcher Peter Merrick looks at Colombia's demographics. From Lagos African correspondent Samuel Okocha reports on reasons why Nigeria holds promise as an investment destination, and from Dubai journalist Mark Townsend, also an important contributor to our book, checks out the property boom there and looks to see whether there is a danger of a repetition of the boom and bust there of 2008-20
