Breaking Banks Fintech Thursday at 12 Noon Pacific November 7th 2013: Will an app a day keep the financial doc away?

Recently, there are an explosion of apps and tools for personal financial management. With our mobile phones, the access to smart financial data is available at our fingertips, and that raises awareness of our personal financial health. But do these tools replace the need for a financial advisor? Today on Breaking Banks, Brett King hosts Christina Getz, Michele Van Lieu, and Denise Hughes, who are financial advisors who are using mindful philosophies and mobile technology to immunize their clients from poor financial decision making. Join as they discuss how to plan personal financial he

Christina Getz

Christina Getz provides individuals, families and professionals an opportunity to challenge traditional thinking and unlock their full financial potential by introducing an uncommon, wide-angled approach to wealth building. I organize and analyze the domains of protection, assets, liabilities and cash flow in an effort to expose unnecessary risk, inefficiencies, and costs. An emphasis is placed on maximizing resources, minimizing risk, creating balance, and preparing for the unexpected. Christina is licensed in life, health, disability and long term care insurance and offers a broad range of individual and group products through her affiliation with Wealth Advisory Group LLC and The Guardia
