Tuesdays at 1 PM Pacific Time on VoiceAmerica Health and Wellness Channel

Cancer is tough. Basic comforts make a world of difference. On today's show, guest host Linda House of the Cancer Support Community and special guest Carrie Varoquiers from the McKesson Foundation are talking about McKesson's Giving Comfort program, a unique initiative that provides care packages to low-income cancer patients. These packages include high-quality comfort items that are most needed and requested by patients undergoing treatment: a soft blanket, warm socks, soothing tea, moisturizer, lip balm, a sleeping cap and much more. Learn more about Comfort Kits and how you can get involve
