November 19th 2013: My Mom Died and I Closed Her Home

Glynnis Walker is a radio talk show host and the best-selling author of eight books. She's spent much of her life as a family caregiver. She describes her personal story, work and family caregiving for her mother up to the point of her death. She explains how her family caregiving then changed. She describes the act of the closing of her mother's home, what she had to do, and the most challenging of the emotional challenges she experienced. She shares her advice for family caregivers faced with closing the home of a loved parent in the best possible way for everyone involved, and to help them
