November 14th 2013: Disruption Abounds – why books, music and newspapers were just the start!

Not since the printing press has a new media been as disruptive as the internet. Because it is about connection, conversation, and a pure democracy of ideas, it is changing every business model and all ideas about traditional services. The first wave of new media disruption was against old media, but that was only the start. Now financial services is ripe for the disruption wave. Today on Breaking Banks, Brett King talks with fellow futurist and innovator Robert Tercek. (<http://www.roberttercek.com>) about how to utilize the disruption wave and how stay ahead of it.
