Addiction Recognizable to Family Caregivers

Linda Bell is the CEO of Bellwood Health Services, www.Bellwood.ca, an addiction treatment centre in Toronto, Canada. She talks about her family history, her life, career, and experience with family caregiving. She explains her work. She discusses the most challenging of the challenges that arise for family caregivers, especially parents and spouses and partners, in recognizing and responding to addiction problems in family members. She explains the help needed by family caregivers in overcoming these challenges. She says what more she would like to do through her work to accelerate progress i
