

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
November 26th 2013: Building Dementia Friendly Communities

Tune in

Archives Available on
VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Lori La Bey is the Founder of Alzheimer's Speaks, www.AlzheimersSpeaks.com, an advocacy group in the US that provides education and support for the Alzheimer's disease and dementia community. Michael Ellenbogen was diagnosed with younger-onset Alzheimer's disease in 2008. He founded the Michael Ellenbogen Movement, <http://www.michaelellenbogenmovement.com/>. They describe dementia friendly communities, and explain why and how they became involved. They explain who a dementia friendly community engages with. They identify the challenges that dementia creates for persons, families, family caregiv

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Featured Guests

Lori La Bey

Lori La Bey describes herself as a Driver of Change. Her mission is to shift society's negative perception of aging and illness. She specializes in the psychosocial aspects of Alzheimer's disease and memory loss.

Read more

Michael Ellenbogen

Michael Ellenbogen was diagnosed with younger-onset Alzheimer's disease in 2008 at the age of 49. Prior to his diagnosis, he was a network operations manager for a fortune 500 financial institution.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

