The Money Answers Show Monday at 12 Noon Pacific November 25th 2013: Learning Valuable Investing Lessons from John Maynard Keynes, the Great Economist

John Maynard Keynes, one of the most influential economists of the 20th century whose ideas still affect economic policy, was also a shrewd investor who built up a multi-million dollar personal portfolio. In this interview, John F. Wasik reveals Keynes's successful investment strategies that you can learn from to become a better investor now. He will explain how Keynes assembled his investment portfolio, how he acted as a contrarian, how he saw the power of compounding dividends, and how he traded commodities profitably. Learn from one of the greatest economists of all time how to be an
