Afflicted By Addiction Archives Available

November 26th 2013: Once lost for 20 years, addicted to meth and on the streets, Jason finds sobriety.

Rarely do addicts so lost find their way home but Jason Jewell woke one day and started his journey in recovery. This is a heart wrenching story of a life of homelessness and addiction where robbery and brushes with death were his life. Jason's search for Meth began daily when he awoke on the frigid streets of Minnesota. Day after day, year after year piled up as his family could only wonder what would come of Jason.

Jason Jewell

Jason Jewell was a normal kid sipping strawberry wine with a friend as a young teen. Marijuana lead to harder drugs but Meth was the drug that called his name and took his soul.
