with Jay Taylor

Turning Hard Times into Good Times
Tuesday at 12 Noon Pacific
December 03rd 2013: Honest Money for Life Liberty & the Pursuit of Happiness

Clark Neily and Robert Giustra visit for the first time. Peter Grandich returns. Clark Neily, author of "Terms of Engagement: How Our Courts Should Enforce the Constitution's Promise of Limited Government" will tell how government is removing liberty, property rights, school choice, First Amendment, and other constitutional rights. We will ask how we might retrieve those lost rights. But does he understand the need to restore honest money if we ever hope to regain our American birthrights? The debasement of our monetary system is not only funding government power and abuse, but along with cor

Featured Guests

Clark Neily

Clark Neily joined the Institute for Justice as a sr. attorney in 2000. He litigates economic liberty, property rights, school choice, First Amendment, and other constitutional cases in both federal and state. Clark has represented parents and children in defense of Florida's Opportunity Scholarship Program and school choice programs in Arizona, Maine, Milwaukee. Clark helped create the Institute's Center for Judicial Engagement, designed to challenge the unconstitutional expansion of government by advocating the Constitution as a charter of liberty against the illegitimate assumption of government power. Clark wrote a book about judicial engagement, titled Terms of Engagement: How Our

Peter Grandich

With no formal education or training, Peter Grandich entered Wall Street in the mid-1980s and within three years was appointed V.P. of Investment Strategy for a leading NY Stock Exchange member firm. Now an internationally-acclaimed financial expert, Grandich has made a 25-plus-year career out of his knack for uncannily-accurate market predictions. Labeled the "Wall Street Whiz Kid" by Good Morning America, Grandich gained national notoriety by forecasting the 1987 stock market crash just weeks before it happened and on the very next day that within two years the market would reach a new all-time high – which it did. Grandich also predicted that 2000 would go down as the year the great meg
