December 10th 2013: Handling Violent Confrontations in Schools

Violent confrontations happen every day. They happen in the workplace, in public spaces, at home and in schools. Would you know what to do if confronted with a potentially violent situation? Join us as Mike Schlosser, PhD, Director of the Police Training Institute at the University of Illinois, discusses the epidemic of violent confrontations in schools and how to handle them - from verbal de-escalation to physical confrontation. Even if you aren't a teacher, the steps we will be discussing can apply to any situation, regardless of the location.
