December 23rd 2013: How to Overcome Hurt & Anger from Childhood

Karen had a difficult childhood. Coming from a large family, she was often forgotten about by her parents, who didn't seem to respect her or themselves. She didn't have a real "role model" or mentor in life. And to top off her problems at home, Karen was also a victim of racism in her neighborhood. Now, as an adult, Karen has some healing to do. She recently read Thoughts Make You Wealthy and has started to take positive steps (writing anger letters, cleaning out clutter, etc.) towards success. However, Karen still struggles with self-respect and allows her past experiences to affect
