December 24th 2013: Words of Women in their Languages about Overcoming Barriers

Nancy Coldham is the founding partner of a leading Canadian public affairs consulting firm, The CG Group, www.cggroup.com. She talks about her career, her experience with family caregiving, and her research project 'Rwandan Women Entrepreneurs: The Gendered Enterprise of Nation-Building'. She explains the challenges and barriers that she found were experienced by women in the role of family caregivers caring for their families and their family members' health, wellbeing and quality of life. She says what more she would like to see done by healthcare and social systems to advance help for Rwanda
