January 09th 2014: Catch Me If You Can: Today's Pink Collar Criminal

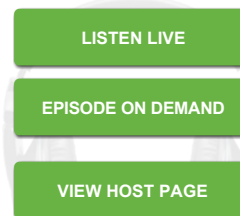

Leona Helmsley made the news as famous white collar criminal. No longer so unique, the pink collar fraudster is on the rise. She even may be one of your most trusted and long term co-workers or employees. She is the Pink Collar Criminal, the growing number lower to mid-level office workers, the bookkeepers, office managers, accountants, and clerks--who steal from their employers. It can be a small business, the PTA, town government, charter school, church, volunteer organization or even the local kid's athletic club. The number of friendly, "regular" women who shatter their employer's trust
