Dr. Gordon Atherley, docg@familycaregiversunite.org, is the host of Family Caregivers Unite that, by the end of 2013, had broadcast 274 Episodes. He explains why he founded the show, and describes what he's learned from family caregivers who've been his Guests. He highlights what family caregiving involves, explains what 'family' means, discusses the type of people who are family caregivers, and estimates the size of the family caregiver community. He highlights the challenges and barriers widely experienced by family caregivers at the end of 2013 in North America. He speaks about his own experience
