January 08th 2014: What Is NAADAC And Why Is It Important

The National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors is the largest organization of addiction professionals in the US. The organization represents the interests of 75,000 counselors, educators and other addiction-focused health care professionals in the United States, Canada and abroad in their service to savings lives and reducing harm from addiction. We get to visit with the executive director, Cynthia Moreno-Tuohy as she guides us through the many critical supports provided to professionals of addiction treatment and recovery; from providing education and training to establish
