Faith and Money: Making the Connection Archives Available
January 13th 2014: Connecting Faith and Money The Biblical Vision

We may try to separate money and faith in our lives, but the Bible will have none of that. Money themes are woven throughout the Bible. In both the Old and New Testaments, we have lessons and stories, parables and prophecies about living together in God's economy of enough for all. In this week's show, let's begin to recover what God has provided in the Scriptures. Activist, theologian and popular educator Ched Myers will share his thoughtful and challenging insights into the Bible's instructions around money. And we will hear examples of people who are, today, taking these biblical instruct
