

Family Caregivers Unite!

Archives Available

February 10th 2014: Why Family Caregivers Should Care for their Families' Genetic Inheritance Data

Marcy Darnovsky, PhD, is Executive Director of the Center for Genetics and Society, <http://www.geneticsandsociety.org/index.php>. Jeff Niskier, MD PhD FRCS FCAHS, is a Professor of Obstetrics-Gynaecology at the Schulich School Medicine & Dentistry, Western University, and Scientist, Children's Health Research Institute, <http://publish.uwo.ca/~jniskier/>. They highlight their lives, careers and experience with family caregiving. They describe their work with their organizations. They discuss the benefits and risks associated with the use of families' genetic inheritance data for research and for m

Read more

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guests

Marcy Darnovsky, PhD

Marcy Darnovsky, PhD, Executive Director of the Center for Genetics and Society, speaks and writes widely on the politics of human biotechnology, focusing on their social justice and public interest implications,

Read more

Jeff Niskier MD PhD

Jeff Niskier MD PhD FRCS FCAHS, is a Professor of Obstetrics-Gynaecology at the Schulich School Medicine & Dentistry, Western University, and Scientist, Children's Health Research Institute, <http://publish.uwo.ca/~jniskier/>. He holds, and has held, CIHR and Genome Canada grants to explore ethical and social issues in reproductive medicine, genetics, and exposure of pregnant women to environmental toxins. He has held a CIHR/Health Canada grant exploring public engagement for citizen deliberation regarding pre-implantation genetic diagnosis. He has written or co-written over 150 scientific articles and book chapters, as well as seven plays. His plays

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

