February 13th 2014: Interview with Patricia Jensen Mother of a Daughter with Special Needs that was Bullied

Rinsley and Callie talk about the damage that kids do to Special Needs kids when they make fun of them or are mean to them. Sometimes kids think because kids have special needs that they don't understand what is going on when they make fun of them behind their back or even right to their faces. The truth is that many Special Needs Kids do understand enough to know when someone is treating them badly and it does have an effect. Rinsley and Callie, interview Patricia Jensen regarding her daughter Candace. In their interview they are able to get real insight on what a child with Special Needs goes
