

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
February 18th 2014: Who Cares for and about Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders?

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Bruce Ritchie is Moderator and CEO of FASlink Fetal Alcohol Disorders Society, <http://www.faslink.org/>. He's a single father of a son diagnosed as an infant with fetal alcohol syndrome. Thelma Vincent, advocate and educator, is President of Alberta's Fetal Alcohol Support Society, <http://www.fassalberta.ca/contact.php>, a parent-driven nonprofit organization for persons and families affected by a fetal alcohol spectrum disorder. They talk about their lives, careers and experience with family caregiving for fetal alcohol spectrum disorders. They highlight their work with their organizations. The

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF

GET CODE

Featured Guests

Bruce Ritchie

Bruce Ritchie is Moderator and CEO of FASlink Fetal Alcohol Disorders Society, <http://www.faslink.org/>, and a single father of a son who was diagnosed with fetal alcohol syndrome as an infant. Bruce was a founding director of the Fetal Alcohol Support Network which evolved to become FASlink Fetal Alcohol Disorders Society, which now serves more than 400,000 people annually. He received Toronto's St Michael's Hospital's Award for Pioneer Work in the Area of Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders.

Read more

Thelma Vincent

Thelma Vincent, advocate and educator, is President of Alberta's Fetal Alcohol Support Society, <http://www.fassalberta.ca/contact.php>, a parent-driven nonprofit organization for persons and families affected by Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook

Share On Twitter

Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

VOICEAMERICA BLOG