Jacqueline Marcell wrote 'Elder Rage', www.ElderRage.com, her best-selling book, out of her experience of caring for her parents with Alzheimer's disease which went undiagnosed for over a year. She talks about her professional career, her work, her book and her life as a family caregiver involved with family members with Alzheimer's disease. She explains the challenges created by Alzheimer's disease for elders diagnosed with it, in getting medical treatment for them, and in getting help for their family caregivers. She describes ways in which the challenges created for elders can be responded
