February 24th 2014: Living the Dream: One Family's Extraordinary Journey Around the World

Do you ever dream of leaving your job, packing your bags and saying goodbye to the rest of your life to travel the world? Larry Weinberg is an avid entrepreneur, but in 2010, Larry and his wife, Kim, a leadership coach and facilitator, realized their dream of traveling around the world with their children. Over a nine-month period, the Weinbergs visited 26 countries on five continents, an experience that brought the family closer together as they learned from other cultures, completed community service projects, and saw some of the world's most fascinating sites. Many people dream of such an a

Kim Weinberg

Kim Weinberg is a leadership coach, facilitator and consultant. She is the founder of Coach In Motion, a Washington, D.C. area based leadership coaching and consulting firm. Kim previously worked in Human Resources and as an Organization Development consultant for Fortune 100 companies, entrepreneurial ventures, and non-profit organizations. She is actively involved with the Young Presidents Organization where she is a Certified Forum Facilitator. For Larry Weinberg, running his own business was always a dream and passion. In 1988, he left the corporate world to co-found BOWA Builders, a home design and construction firm. He continued pursuing his love of business by joining the Young Presi
