Ernest W. Matton

Ernest W. Matton (Little Brown Bear), ernest@look.ca, is a Métis helper and guide who inspires living in today's hectic world, and bridging culture and professional disciplines to assist people in finding help. Blending mainstream information with Aboriginal teachings has created culture-sensitive programs that are appropriate for healing journeys. With his years of experience on and off reserve and with mainstream agencies, he makes wellness practices and spirituality simple. Drawing on his academic background, vast work and personal life experiences, he focuses on what works to bring balance and inspiration to everyday life. He's a member in good standing with the Canadian Addiction Counsellors
