Family Caregivers Unite! Archives Available

March 03rd 2014: You Have Come a Long Way Babies

In August of 2003, Mariana Bracic, a successful career lawyer, found herself at the end of her parental leave with her twins. Also in 2003, she opened MBC Legal, www.mbclegal.ca, an employment law firm and, subsequently, MBC Information Solutions Inc., a legal information company. She talks about her legal career up to the point at which she went on parental leave, and the early period of her life as family caregiver for the twins. She explains what decided her to set up her own law firm. She discusses the challenges she experienced in setting up and running her own law-firm and her legal info

Mariana Bracic

Mariana Bracic is a lawyer and founder of MBC Legal, a boutique law firm serving medical doctors across Canada. She serves as Chair of the Advisory Board to Canadian Cannabis Corporation. She has previously been a guest on VoiceAmerica, Family Caregivers Unite, to discuss how she balances a successful legal career with parenting her gifted twins, whom she taught to read at the incredible age of twelve months. She and her children have also been featured on the front page of the National Post newspaper, on City TV and CBC Radio for that story. In her spare time, she enjoys running (having recently completed the Toronto Marathon) and is also writing a book on infant literacy. In addition, s
