March 03rd 2014: The Entrepreneurial Mindset

Did you ever wonder what makes for a successful entrepreneur? What characteristics must one have to not only jump in to entrepreneurship with both feet, but actually execute their vision? On today's episode of The Second Stage hosts Jeffrey Kadlic and Brendan Anderson are joined by serial entrepreneur and founder of MOVABLE, Blake Squires, to dissect these very questions. Having successfully founded four companies, Mr. Squires will share his definition of the entrepreneurial mindset as well as business tactics for getting started. While coming up with a unique product or service is by no means

Blake Squires

Blake Squires is a product entrepreneur who has founded several product companies and he has navigated 3 successful exits since 1999. Blake co-founded Everstream, Findaway and Movable. He also founded Hatch that invests in and helps entrepreneurs maximize their ideas. From his love of entrepreneurship and business in general, Blake also coaches several product CEOs. Because that wasn't enough, he's also started three more companies: DoctorsOrders, Stuhr and Stubl. It's no surprise that Blake was awarded "40 Most Influential People Under 40" by Crain's Magazine and was named as an EY Entrepreneur of the Year finalist in 2010. Blake is a Cleveland-native, and resides in Fairlawn Heights with
