March 7th 2014: The Hard Work of Soft Management: A Conversation with Bernie Nagle

Are you a manager or C-level executive who would like to get more from your employees? Or an employee who feels you have much more to give but don't feel empowered or motivated? In today's fast-paced, results-driven, global economy, there is increasing pressure to get more done, faster, and with fewer resources. Chasing operational excellence can drive us to push harder on ourselves and others. But there's a better way. Tune in today as we explore how to mine the rich vein of sustainable competitive advantage lying deep within the hearts and minds of any workforce. Creativity, agility, and ent

Bernie Nagle

Bernie Nagle has toiled in the fields of "Employee Engagement" for over 35 years as an Author, Consultant, Speaker, Business Owner and Senior Operations Executive with Fortune 500 manufacturers and PriceWaterhouseCoopers. In 1995 he created Altrpreneur – "One who leads an enterprise with conspicuous regard for all stakeholders." His perspective is informed by thousands of hours of facilitation and hands-on leadership of teams - from the shop floor to the board room - dealing with strategic thinking, creative problem solving, process improvement, sustainability, and conflict resolution. Along the way he has donated many hundreds of pro-bono consulting hours to Homeless and Children's Serv
