NeuroMatters: The Brink of Alzheimer's Archives Available

March 04th 2014: Staying Home with Dementia

It is the desire and goal for most families to enable someone with dementia to live out their life in the comfort and familiarity of their home. Unfortunately, circumstances arise which make this very challenging. The non-Medicare home health community provides services that enable people to remain in their homes as long as possible. Many of these services may not be covered by Medicare and other third-party coverage. Nevertheless, these services can make a very substantial difference in quality of life, safety, and cost of care. Derrall Reed will discuss the role of non-Medicare home health p
