March 18th 2014: Holistic Health Insurance

Kari Gray faced terminal cancer in her 20's. She got a second chance at life because, she says, alternative medicine saved her. Her mission is to be the 'Voice for Choice' with her own business, Green-Surance, www.green-surance.com. She describes her life before and after diagnosis, and her experience of doctors and healthcare systems. She explains holistic health and alternative medicine, how these relate to each other, and how these are viewed and supported by healthcare systems. She explains why she started Green-Surance, and the services it offers. She says when and why she would recommend

Kari Gray

Kari Gray has a professional career after facing terminal cancer in her 20's. The day she went to the doctor to receive a prognosis of no hope of survival is a day no one with good health sees coming, she says. In defiance of the sure death forecast for her by two medical diagnoses, she explains, she got a second chance at life because alternative medicine saved her. She adds that her experience of the life-saving effectiveness of alternative treatments created her passion and drive to 'pay it forward' with her professional mission to take this experience and be the voice of change. By creating a lifesaving empowering solution, change for the better is soon to be the result. She says that, i
