March 19th 2014: Music for a Meaningful Life

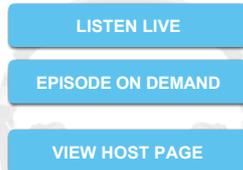

How can music deepen our experience of life, especially when life is difficult? As a result of the challenges in his own life, Gary Malkin, a multiple Emmy® and Clio® award-winning composer, producer, performer and public speaker, explored the ways he could apply his considerable experience and talent to that question. What resulted was a large body of work in multiple media supporting people as they face life's challenges. Listen in to learn how Gary came to use his music and creative power for healing purposes and how we can all integrate what moves us into how we face what's hard

Gary Malkin

Gary Malkin is an award-winning composer, public speaker, and performer who inspires the world to embrace music as a catalyst for emotional intelligence, healing, and a more meaningful life. His work redefines the role of the music in healthcare, long-term care, and corporate America. A multiple Emmy, Clio, and ASCAP award recipient, Gary has spent three decades composing music for film, television, commercials and socially responsible documentaries, preparing him to create innovative musical solutions for many of the challenges facing our society. Through the life-affirming company Wisdom of the World, he and music healing pioneer Michael Stillwater co-created the globally acclaimed CD/bo
