March 20th 2014: Winning Ponies Presents Emmy Award Winning Writer Lenny Shulman and DRF Columnist and Handicapper Byron King

Lenny Schulman is back to update us on his latest. A novel his first "Long Way From Home" in which we follow the exploits of wise-cracking New York author Dan Henry as he lurches forward from unemployed writer to host of a TV sports talk show--with help and hindrance from his brilliant, sex-addicted attorney, and from a murky, mysterious source who feeds him inside information. To Lenny's duties at The Blood-Horse, we can now add novelist. Lenny's great sense of humor comes across in this book while it weaves its way through intrigue. Our second guest is Byron King, columnist and handicapper f

Byron King

Byron King, a native of Louisville, Ky., is the Kentucky handicapper and columnist for Daily Racing Form. A graduate of the University of Arizona Racetrack Industry Program, he initially worked as the paddock host and morning-line odds maker for Sam Houston Race Park before joining DRF in 1995. Since that time, he has covered racing from across the country for the Form, with his primary focus now being on the Kentucky circuit, and Churchill Downs in particular. In addition to his handicapping and reporting duties for the Form, he is a horse owner and breeder, and has helped identify numerous eventual stakes winners for private purchase for clients.
