March 25th 2014: The Benefits of Integrative Medicine

Lifestyle360 host Nicole Moneer will share her health history and how she spent 20+ years getting sicker and sicker via Allopathic medicine. It wasn't until 2006 when she stumbled upon Turner Chiropractic and Rehab Center, that her health finally improved with consistent proper nutrition and supplementation. Guest Dr. John Turner will go in-depth on the differences between Integrative Medicine and Allopathic Medicine and share client success stories as well as the many tools he uses to help his patients achieve optimal health

Dr. John Turner

Dr. John Turner is the founding director of Turner Chiropractic & Rehab Center. The clinic was established in 1986 and has been treating patients using holistic means for over 25 years. Dr. Turner is a Board Certified Chiropractic Neurologist, practicing as a primary care physician in the Chicagoland area. The clinic offers alternative means of healthcare including chiropractic neurology, acupuncture, applied kinesiology and homeopathy in addition to traditional chiropractic care. He has lectured locally, nationally and internationally on topics in nutrition, sports medicine and technique. Correcting the underlying cause of a patient's symptoms is his primary concern and that usually star
