April 16th 2014: Take the leap and make it happen!

Everybody experiences moments of great glory and also those of utter despair. Oftentimes, we are uncertain about what we are going to do when we are hit with what appears to be a devastating situation and, moreover, we are not confident about how we are going to handle it. Some still manage to rise to the top; others never make it. And still others have fallen gracefully only to rise again, stronger and even more passionate about their career's focus and dreams. Come join Jennifer for an inspiring and motivating interview with Jennifer Wilkov. In this interview, Jennifer S. Wilkov will show yo

Jennifer S. Wilkov

Jennifer's passion for communication has led to her being a # 1 radio show host and executive producer, a #1 international best-selling award-winning author, international keynote speaker, an award-winning freelance writer, a successful book business consultant, and entrepreneur. She survived being incarcerated in one of New York's and the nation's most violent prisons, Rikers Island, after inappropriately being told to plead guilty to a crime she did not commit by an attorney who mishandled her case. Jennifer continued to succeed as an author, media personality, entrepreneur and speaker after enduring this devastating, unimaginable experience. She knows what it takes to live the life you l
