April 10th 2014: Networking, Mentoring and Succeeding at Work and at Home

Are you juggling to succeed at work and at home and finding it to be a constant challenge? We all know there is no such thing as work-life balance. So, how can you find some sort of peace and fulfillment in both arenas? My guest, Kristina Bouweiri, President and CEO of Reston Limousine, has found a path that has been extremely successful for her. Kristina will openly share her trials and triumphs. She will emphasize the importance of having a solid and supportive network, taking time for yourself, mentoring at home and at work, introducing and including your kids to your business and the signi
