April 17th 2014: Lorrin and Karen Kain: A Unique Life Fully Lived

Karen's daughter, Lorrin was born in 1994. At six weeks, she had an adverse reaction to her one and only DPT vaccination leaving her with severe brain damage. The doctors never had hope for Lorrin's future and suggested Karen get on with her life. Feeling abandoned by modern medicine, Karen turned to alternative treatments and spiritual guidance. Despite all of Karen's best efforts, Lorrin continued to have horrible episodes of uncontrolled seizures that would land them in the hospital for days. Karen spent every fiber of her being creating as normal life as possible for her daughter. She enr

Karen Kain

Karen Kain a highly respected parent advocate for special needs families, has written an empowering book about raising her only daughter, Lorrin, in a wheel chair for fifteen years after a reaction to a vaccination left her only able to blink at 6 weeks old. In A Unique Life Fully Lived, Karen shares her years of raising Lorrin, who was blind, non-verbal, and a quadriplegic. Karen appears in "Vaxxed", showing the seizures her daughter received 2 hours after her first and only vaccine. The seizures continued daily for the rest of her life.
