Kevin Sprints

Sprints is, perhaps, best known to millions around the world as television's dashing "Dr. Craig Wesley," a character he portrayed, for 7 years on NBC's Emmy Award Winning drama: Days of Our Lives. After becoming a huge fan favorite, Sprints was cast to play his "Days" role opposite Matt Leblanc's "Dr. Drake Ramoray" on NBC's, Friends. Sprints' career began, at 18, when he landed his first professional job as Mike ("I Can Do That") Costa, in Michael Bennett's Broadway seminal musical: A Chorus Line. Sprints has also starred on Broadway and Regional tours including: Hairspray, Meet Me in St. Louis, Company, Damn Yankees and Into the Woods. A tribute to Sprints' high-octane talent came
