May 22nd 2014: Leading Teams

Do you know how to develop a team? The ability to manage effectively with and through others requires leaders today to know how to develop and work with teams. Deanne who has personally trained over 42,000 managers and coached managers and executives on team development will share some of those team development strategies. She will discuss the importance of pre-planning, and the six key steps leaders need to consider in starting successful teams. She will also discuss the roles you can see team members play and how to deal with those difficult team members that block team success. Deanne will
