May 27th 2014: Special Encore Presentation: Helping Our Nations Peacekeepers: K9's For Warriors

In our continuing series on the challenges facing our nations soldiers and veterans, we switch the focus to the "four legged" support available to those struggling with post-traumatic stress as a result of combat or service to this country. Join us as K9s For Warriors explains how they rescue dogs, train them, and then provide them to veterans. We will also be joined by retired Staff Sargent David Moore, the recipient of a K9s For Warriors dog, and he will explain how having one of these highly trained dogs has changed his life for the better.

K9s For Warriors

K9s For Warriors is dedicated to providing service canines to our warriors suffering from post-traumatic stress as a result of conflicts and war after 9/11. Sandi Capra of K9s For Warriors will explain how they involve the veteran in the training of their new service canine partner, allowing them the opportunity to be part of the solution to their recovery. K9's For Warriors provides a service canine, training, certification, equipment, seminars, vet care, most meals and housing, free of charge. K9s For Warriors is supported by The Wounded Warrior Project, Birdies for the Brave, Warrior Gateway, and many other military organizations. Staff Sargent David Moore recently retired from the G
