May 27th 2014: Notre Dame Basketball player to Wounded
Warrior and Advocate

Former Notre Dame basketball player Danielle Green-Byrd prides herself on taking "the road less traveled" – a road that took a fateful turn when she lost her left arm in Iraq.

Army Specialist Danielle Green-Byrd

A former basketball star from Chicago's inner city who served in the Army and was injured in Iraq has learned that time does really heal wounds. Danielle Green-Byrd, one of the first women injured during the beginning of the conflict in Iraq, said she believes her successful transition comes from traveling on the road of hard knocks, inspired by a Robert F
