June 10th 2014: Combat Helicopter Pilot to Mercy Flights

He flew 650 combat helicopter missions in Vietnam, where he was shot down and received the Air Medal for Heroism for saving his crew. By Paul Fattig Mail Tribune If Medford resident Steve Deaton didn't have the papers and photographs to document his tales, they would raise more than a few eyebrows. "My military experience was all out of the norm — not the standard track," he acknowledged. "But everything, except going to Vietnam, was voluntary." Consider this: He was born on Veterans Day — Nov. 11, 1950 — in the U.S. Naval Hospital on the Marine Corps Base at Camp Pendleton, Calif. And
