

Fear is Negotiable: Business Survival Skills 101

Archives Available

July 08th 2014: Violence and the Mental Health Crisis in America

Mass violence seems to be an almost weekly occurrence in America these days. The roots of this epidemic go much deeper than just the resistance to gun control policies in the US. There is a mental health crisis going on, and it's arguably front and center in these waves of public violence. Join us as Jay P. Singh, Ph.D., internationally known expert in the field of Forensic Psychiatry and Psychology, discusses the current state of the mental health crisis in America and how it manifests in incidents of mass violence.

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Business Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guest

Jay P Singh, Ph.D.

Jay P Singh, Ph.D., is the internationally award-winning President and CEO of the Global Institute of Forensic Research. Former Senior Clinical Researcher in Forensic Psychiatry and Psychology for the Department of Justice of Switzerland and fellow of the Mental Health Law and Policy Department at the University of South Florida, he completed his graduate studies in psychiatry at the University of Oxford. Since this time, he has lectured for Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Cornell, Brown, Dartmouth, and UPenn. He was promoted to Full Professor at Molde University College in Norway in 2014. Dr. Singh's primary research interest is forensic risk assessment, the attempt to predict the likelihood of f

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

