August 14th 2014: THE ART OF SELF LEADERSHIP

The first step in becoming an effective leader is to take a good look in the mirror and confidently proclaim that you are a leader yourself. This allows you to automatically lay the foundation for assisting others to do the same. The authentic and real foundation for effective leadership is predicated upon incisive self-examination, and a genuine willingness to crave self improvement. In this process, not only do we come into a better understanding and empathy for other people and their problems, but we also unwittingly become role models of sorts. Being a role model in this mold does not nece
